

EVERYTHING GROWS IN NEW YORK STATE, YOUR SALES INCLUDED.

STARTUPNY

Empire State
Development

STARTUP-NY offers agri-business zero taxes for 10 years and access to top academic programs, like the Cornell Food Research Center. But that's just the beginning. Thanks to abundant land and water resources, New York farms provide food and beverage manufacturing companies with sustainable and diverse products. An excellent agricultural infrastructure and transportation network speeds produce from farm to processing, and then on to close-by urban centers, including New York City, the country's largest market. Let New York State work for you.
