

You notice how each glassy little orb does its own dance on your skin, reflecting light in shades of blush and blue.

And to think you once said, “there’s no time for baths.”

Savor the small stuff.

An extraordinary address is emerging in Southern California, dedicated to the pursuit of all things posh and pleasurable. It begins with a Moorish-inspired resort hotel; The Grand Del Mar. A lavish destination spa and Tom Fazio golf course define the level of play. And an exclusive enclave of 4,000-square-foot Villas complete the masterpiece. To be among the first to obtain full or shared ownership privileges, we invite you to call 877-350-9509 or visit www.thegradddelmar.com.

The Villas at The Grand Del Mar